

Right >
In Vanuatu, Janet Bill (left) and her daughters participate in a healthy eating program organised by AVI volunteer Jacqui Birch, who works at a nutrition centre run by community organisation Wan Smol Bag.
Photo >
Debra Plueckhahn

There's never been a better time to volunteer overseas

Take your life and skills to a place that needs you most and be a part of a community effort that is contributing to positive and lasting change.

- > Agriculture
- > Architecture
- > Community Development
- > Education
- > Engineering
- > Finance
- > Fundraising
- > Hospitality & Tourism
- > Human Resources
- > Information Technology
- > Law & Justice
- > Library
- > Media /Communications
- > Natural Sciences & Conservation
- > Organisational Development
- > Pharmacy
- > Physiotherapy
- > Project Management
- > Skilled Trades
- > Social Work

Volunteers receive airfares, accommodation, a living allowance, ongoing support and career advancement. You'll also have the experience of a lifetime, after all, what goes around comes around.

To find out more:

Visit > www.australianvolunteers.com

Attend > An AVI Information Session visiting all states

Contact > The AVI recruitment team on 1800 331 292

tollfree 1800 331 292

www.australianvolunteers.com